Dear Mr. Meredith,

In Social Studies class we have been talking about you and your situation. Our teacher, Mr. Baginski, has kept us posted. I don't think that those people are right not letting you into the college. But I am only a little girl (14) and I can only think about these things. I can't do anything about them.

I just wanted you to know that I'm on your side. God made us all alike and just because some are darker than others doesn't mean anything.

Sincerely,

Joan Levins
